

Glenbard Township High School District 87

Administration Center ▲ 596 Crescent Boulevard ▲ Glen Ellyn, Illinois 60137-4297 ▲ Phone: (630) 469-9100 ▲ Fax: (630) 469-9107

AAUW to present program on No Child Left Behind Act

On March 7, the Wheaton/Glen Ellyn Branch of the American Association of University Women is sponsoring a program and discussion on the topic "No Child Left Behind."

The speaker is Dr. Christine Sorensen, dean of the College of Education at Northern Illinois University. The program will be held in the second floor auditorium of the DuPage County Historical Museum at 102 East Wesley St. in Wheaton. The museum has an elevator to the second floor that can be accessed by entering the museum from Main Street.

The program will begin at 7:30 p.m., but coffee and social time will begin at 7 p.m. The public is invited to this program addressing this critical issue.

If you have any questions, please contact Helen Westlake at 630-665-2776.

Posted: February 9, 2007