Holiday band concert promises musical variety

More than 130 students at Glenbard South High School will join forces for a holiday band concert at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 13.

The Concert Band, Symphonic Band, and Percussion Ensembles will perform a variety of classical, traditional, and seasonal band music.

Symphonic Band program includes Variants on a Medieval Tune by Norman Dello Joio, Elegy for a Young American by Ronald Lo Presti, Chester by William Schumann, The Little English Girl by Davide Delle Cese, and Christmas on Broadway by John Higgins.

Concert Band program includes Where Eagles Soar by Steven Reineke, Aquarium by Johan de Meij, Three Dorset Songs by Ralph Vaughan Williams, and Ukrainian Bell Carol by Richard Saucedo.

The Percussion Ensemble program includes Jingle Bells, Little Jazz Drummer Boy, and Deck Them Halls; all arranged by Roloff Percussion.

The Glenbard South bands are under the direction of Brian Dewald, with assistance from Dana Legg.
