Glenbard West forensics team succeeds at state event

Glenbard West High School student David Knaus is state champion in special occasion speaking after his spectacular performance at the state forensics tournament. Glenbard West's forensics team took ninth place in the tournament, which was held Feb. 18 at Oak Lawn Community High School.

The performance in the round production of "The Things They Carried" placed fifth in the state. Cast members included Alyssa Roselli, Luke Stewart, Bess Carey, Kristin McCaffrey, Jason Brassler, Corinne Ellis, Hank Clauss, Adam Baldocchi, Curt Toulouse, Calvin Healy, Alex McElvain, Jay DeLuna, Paul Hartge, Alex Speder, Matt Dombro, and Kristen Perkins.

Nate Wheatley took seventh place in the state in extemporaneous speaking, and Kyle Frischkorn placed third in the state in radio speaking.

Overall, it was a great season for the entire team.
