Forensics team takes 5th place at state tournament

Glenbard West's Forensics Team finished 5th in the State of Illinois Forensics Tournament on Feb. 19th at Carbondale Community High School.

State qualifiers were Clare Malone in oratory, Tyler Healy in radio speaking, and the entire performance in the round cast, including: Emily Andruska, Becca Baker, Adam Baldocchi, Mark Campbell, Bess Carey, Matt Dombro, Phoebe Duvall, Kyle Frischkorn, Marzena Potchebout, Alex Speder, Brooke Still, Chelle Toulouse, Austin Waters and Stephanie Waters.

In individual events, Pat Frank placed 5th in impromptu speaking. Paul Savaiano was the state runner-up (2nd Place) in humorous interpretation.

Special congratulations go to Pat Frank, who is the state champion in special occasion speaking - Glenbard West's first state champ in 8 years.

Coach Tony Crowley said, "The accomplishments of these students are representative of the entire team's hard work over the past year."
