Glenbard West volleyball player commits to Radford University

Lexie Miller of Glen Ellyn, senior outside hitter for the Glenbard West High School Hilltoppers volleyball team, has received a 4-year full-ride scholarship to Radford University. Nestled in the foothills of western Virginia, this Division One school of 10,000 students proved to be the best fit for Miller.

When asked how she decided which university to attend, Miller said, “My most favorite place in the world is where my family vacations in Michigan. Radford reminds me so much of that place. The campus is beautiful. Then when I met the girls, we just connected. It was the best experience of all my visits to schools,” she said. “Coach Burch, I believe, cares about me as a person, as a student, and as an athlete. I know I will be happy there.”

She has made a verbal commitment to attend Radford and will sign a letter of intent on Nov. 15.

Miller wants to study hotel and resort management and hopes to someday study abroad.

Glenbard West is losing its three-year starter, but the Radford Highlanders will have four years of this intense competitor’s presence to help them in the Big South Conference.
