Community can meet new Glenbard South principal at reception

Glenbard High School District 87 invites the community to a reception for Terri Hanrahan, the new principal at Glenbard South High School in Glen Ellyn. The reception will begin at 7 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 9, at Glenbard South, 23W200 Butterfield Road.

Community members are invited to take advantage of this opportunity to meet Hanrahan and learn about her goals as Glenbard South's new educational leader.

Students will provide entertainment, and light refreshments will be served.

Prior to coming to Glenbard South, Hanrahan was assistant principal for instruction at Glenbard East High School in Lombard. Her professional experience also includes serving as social studies department chairman with Leyden Community High Schools in Franklin Park; the humanities division chairman at Round Lake High School, and associate principal/dean of students at Regina Dominican High School in Wilmette.

Hanrahan earned a master's degree in educational leadership from the University of Illinois at Chicago and a master's degree in religious studies from Mundelein College. She earned her bachelor's degree from Loyola University of Chicago.
