Glenbard students chosen for All-State Music event

Several Glenbard District 87 students have been selected to perform at the Illinois Music Educators Association All-State Music festival to be held Jan. 25 through 27 in Peoria.

Students were chosen based on highest scores and chair placings from the IMEA District 9 Festival, which was held in November.

The following Glenbard East High School students have been selected as All-State Musicians for the 2006-2007 school year: Caitlin Barta, All-State Orchestra; James Gasber, Honor Choir; Eric Haimann, All-State Choir; McKayla Hoogerwerf, All-State Band; Kaitlin King, All-State Band; Darren Miller, Honor Choir; Cara Newman, All-State Band; Michael Powell, All-State Choir; Rachel Rhody, All-State Band; and Liz Stachelski, All-State Band.

Glenbard South High School students include Michelle Marinova, Orchestra; Ross Maki, Orchestra; Zachary May, Orchestra; Linden Wu, Band; Sara Emme, Band; Austin Keep, Band; and Timothy Honig, Band.

Glenbard West High School students include Liz Hohhof, Honors Choir, and Betsy Welander, Orchestra.
