Glenbard congratulates its Illinois State Scholars

Hundreds of Glenbard District 87 students have been named Illinois State Scholar finalists, based on their superior academic potential. Each student designated as a State Scholar receives a Certificate of Achievement and statewide recognition in the news media.

Glenbard's State Scholars are among approximately 144,000 graduating high school seniors who qualify as a State Scholar. A complete listing of State Scholars is made available to Illinois colleges and universities.
