Lilac Band Concert set for April 26 at Glenbard East

With the scent of lilacs everywhere, there's great music in the air as the GRAMMY Award-winning Glenbard East Music Department presents the annual Lilac Band Concert at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 26, in Biester Auditorium, 1014 S. Main St. in Lombard.

This year's concert will feature 140 talented student musicians in two bands.

Concert Band I will perform three pieces: Symphony for Winds and Percussion Movement 1, Dancing Day; Alleluia! Laudamus Te; and Cause for Celebration. The band delighted the audience with this program at the Plainfield Concert Band Festival.

The Symphonic Band will present Concerto for Horn; Cloudsplitter Fanfare; Colonial Song; and Celebration. The band was honored by being selected to perform this program at the University of Illinois Superstate Concert Band Festival this spring.

Admission is $3 for adults and $2 for students and seniors. The Music Booster Family Pass covers this concert.
