Glenbard East mock trial team county champs

Glenbard East High School won the 26-team DuPage County Mock Trial Tournament Feb. 9.

Glenbard East defeated Providence Catholic and Willowbrook high schools in the first two rounds and finished tied with York High School for the most points in the tournament. Glenbard East edged York in a hard fought championship round held in the Wheaton courthouse's main courtroom in front of the honorable Hollis Webster and a large crowd of students, parents, and evaluators.

This is Glenbard East's first county championship. The traveling trophy will remain in Glenbard District 87 after Glenbard South's victory in the tournament last year.

Members of the team include Lena Brandis, Holly Brennan, Kaitlyn Drew, Ann Hasenfang, Liz Haydu, Chelsea James, Mike Jaroski, Christian Maldonado, Jacob Miller, Rachel Renteria, Jordan Reece, Melissa Solis, Sergio Simental, and Brittany Varzino.

This is a significant achievement and a credit to the students' hard work and vigilant preparation.
