Hutchins joins Glenbard school board

Brad Hutchins of Glen Ellyn has been appointed to serve on the Glenbard Township High School District 87 Board of Education. Hutchins fills the vacancy created when board member Stephen Blount of Wheaton resigned in August.

Blount stepped down from the board Aug. 9 after accepting a new job that requires extensive international travel.

Hutchins, who was sworn in Sept. 13, will serve the remainder of the term, which expires in April 2005. He brings to District 87 five years of experience serving on the Community Consolidated School District 89 Board of Education. He was a chairman of the site-based decision management team at BriarGlen and a member of the District 89 Facilities Planning Committee. Hutchins' term on the District 89 Board of Education expires in 2005, but he has resigned from that board.

His two children will attend Glenbard South High School in Glen Ellyn in the 2005-06 school year.

Hutchins is the chief operating officer at Oral Health America, a national public benefit corporation. He oversees all operations, staffing, board management, budget, contract negotiations and evaluation.

A 15-year resident of District 87, Hutchins has a master's degree in speech language pathology.
