Glenbard East to perform with New Philharmonic Orchestra

Glenbard East High School's Concert Orchestra has been invited to perform with the New Philharmonic Orchestra.

The students will perform under the direction of Kirk Muspratt on Friday, April 27, at McAnnich Arts Center at the College of DuPage in Glen Ellyn. They will perform for the concert's grand finale. Muspratt was named Chicago Tribune's Artist of the Year and is an inspiration to the musical world of orchestras.

The students will perform at 8 p.m. Glenbard East also will have two student quartets performing in the lobby at 7:30 p.m. for pre-concert music.

This concert will be a great experience for Glenbard East students to sit alongside professionals.

For further information, please contact Joanne May, music department chairman, at (630) 627-9250 Ext. 1952.
