Glenbard North band to perform May 10

If you are looking for a great way to celebrate the season, come enjoy the lively sounds of Glenbard North High School's band during its concert on Thursday, May 10.

The evening will include Dan Lunt, band director at Jay Stream Middle School in Carol Stream, serving as guest conductor for three pieces he wrote.

Also, Glenbard North seniors will be recognized.

The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m. May 10 in the auditorium, 990 N. Kuhn Road in Carol Stream. Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for senior citizens and children.

Concert Band 2 will perform "Firefall" (a contemporary overture), "The All American March," and "Park Ridge," conducted by Dan Lunt.

The Concert Band will play "Convergence" (a contemporary overture), "Ictus," conducted by Lunt, and "Walt Disney Overture."

The Symphonic Band will perform "A Longford Legend;" "Apogee," conducted by Lunt; "Concert Etude," a trumpet solo with band accompaniment featuring senior soloist Bobby Sbertoli; and "Riders for the Flag March."

Further information is available by calling music department chairman Bill Schraft at (630) 653-7000 Ext. 3252.
