Community invited to join in Glenbard North homecoming fun

Glenbard North High School students are getting ready for an exciting week of homecoming activities.

Students will nominate members of the homecoming court during their lunch periods from Sept. 24 through 28, and the election will be held Oct. 3 and 4.

The homecoming king and queen and their court will be announced during the pep rally, which begins at 1:30 p.m. Friday, Oct 12.

At 7:30 p.m. Oct. 12, the Panthers will take on Naperville Central High School in the homecoming varsity football game. Alumni and the entire community are invited to join in the celebration and festivities.

On Saturday, Oct. 13, students will put on their finest for the homecoming dance, which begins at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria, 990 N. Kuhn Road in Carol Stream.

Throughout the week, students will get to show their school spirit with the following activities:

Tuesday, Oct. 9, Pajama Day
Wednesday, Oct. 10, Stoplight Day
Thursday, Oct. 11, '50s Day
Friday, Oct. 12, Black and Gold Day
