Geist to serve as interim principal at Glenbard North

Glenbard North High School Principal Prentiss Lea's genuine enthusiasm for students and excellent leadership skills have been tremendous assets to the school and the district as a whole. Lea is moving ahead, taking a position as associate superintendent in Libertyville High School District 128. Linda Geist, assistant principal for instruction at Glenbard North, has been named interim principal for the 2005-06 school year. She will fill the position effective July 1.

A principal search will be conducted during the 2005-06 school year to name a permanent principal at the high school in Carol Stream.

Geist has been Glenbard North's assistant principal for instruction since 2000. Prior to coming to Glenbard, Geist was director of student activities at Highland Park High School from 1994 to 2000, and from 1987 to 1994 she was assistant principal at John Paul High School in London, Ontario Canada.

She also has experience as a high school department chairwoman, district curriculum consultant and an English teacher.

Geist's professional preparation includes:

Doctoral Program, Educational Leadership & Policy Studies: Loyola University, Chicago.

Type 75 Certification: Loyola University, Chicago

Ontario Supervisory Officer Certification Candidate:

Ontario Institute for Studies in Education Toronto, Canada

Principal certification: Ontario Institute for Studies in Education

Assistant principal certification: Ontario Institute for Studies in Education

Master of education degree: University of Western Ontario, Canada

National coaching certification: National Track & Field Center

Bachelor of arts degree: University of Western Ontario, Canada
