Speaker to discuss critical skills for teens' success

Tuesday, Oct. 16, brings another amazing author and speaker—Dr. Bruce Colston _ to Glenbard Township High School District 87. Colston will present “Raising Capable Teens for the 21st Century.”

Parents will learn practical tips to help teens develop self-discipline and responsibility; how to strengthen family bonds; and the importance of promoting self-confidence, rather than self-esteem.

Colston is an educator and human development professional who helps parents understand the critical skills that teen-agers need to succeed.

There will be two opportunities to hear Colston’s important message: 9:30 a.m. Oct. 16 at the Glenbard South High School Little Theater, 23W200 Butterfield Road in Glen Ellyn and 7 p.m. at the Glenbard North High School Little Theater, 990 N. Kuhn Road in Carol Stream.

Parents also are invited to attend a 6 p.m. pre-meeting discussion group at Glenbard North. This is a great opportunity to share concerns, problems and solutions with one another.

This program is underwritten in part by District 44 Title IV federal grant funds.

Further information is available by contacting Gilda Ross, Glenbard District 87 student and community projects coordinator, at (630) 267-2975.
