Glenbard North parents invited to learn about Booster groups Interim superintendents, Glenbard North administrators also will be on hand

Parents of Glenbard North High School students are invited to check out their school's various parent groups and meet school administrators during a special evening Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Glenbard North's Parent Teacher Student Association will sponsor the event at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 13, in the cafeteria at the school, 990 N. Kuhn Road in Carol Stream.

The school's Athletic, Music and Theater Booster clubs also are involved in this event. Those who attend will have an opportunity to meet Stephen Berry and Ronald Smith, interim superintendents in Glenbard Township High School District 87, as well as Glenbard North interim principal Linda Geist and the school's administrative team.

There will be a break at 7:30 p.m. when refreshments will be served and parents can talk with members of the various parent groups.

At 7:45 p.m. each of the various Booster groups will break out into individual meetings.

All parents are encouraged to attend.

Further information is available by calling Linda Geist at 653-7000 Ext. 3202.
