Voters approve referendum to restore 7-course day

Voters in Glenbard Township High School District 87 have restored the 7-course day for more than 9,000 students.

The following results are from the DuPage County Election Commission:

YES	16,616 votes	56.70%
NO	12,689 votes	43.30%

Because of the community's support, Glenbard District 87 can reinstate the level of quality that comes with offering students seven classes a day. Glenbard is very grateful for the community's support of the referendum that makes this possible.
