Teens take top honors at Skills USA regional competition

Twenty-six students from Technology Center of DuPage in Addison took first, second or third place in 10 of 27 contest divisions at the 2006 Skills USA Region 1 Skill Competition. Technology Center students swept the top three places in Carpentry, Commercial Baking, and Culinary Arts. Seven of those students were from Glenbard District 87.

Skills USA is a national student organization promoting business and leadership skills through conferences and competitions at the regional, state, and national levels. The Region 1 Skill Competition gives students a chance to prepare for the state qualifying trials in the spring.

Glenbard South students Grant Deliberto and Kimberly Stanke took first place in TV production. Glenbard West students Nick Klein and Joshua Owens took second and third place, respectively, in carpentry. Glenbard East student Kylie Kryger took second place in culinary arts. Glenbard North student Matt Omiotek took second place in collision repair; and Glenbard North student Diem Nguyen took third place in nail care.
