Glenbard West spring comedy a French classic

Glenbard West will bring the hysterical farce “Tartuffe” to life April 19 through 21. Set during the 17th century, “Tartuffe” is Moliere’s tale of a hypocrite who pretends to be a religious figure in order to swindle a rich man’s fortune, marry his daughter and charm his wife.

The play will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, April 19 through 21, in the school auditorium, 670 Crescent Blvd. in Glen Ellyn.

Tickets are $5 and available by calling (630) 469-8600.

Further information is available by calling Mike Moran at (630) 469-8600 Ext. 2787.
