Parenting program tackles teens, parties and the law

Parents can learn about the realities of today's teen party scene by attending "Parents * Teens * Parties and the Law," a presentation by the Glenbard West High School Citizens Advisory Council and C.A.R.E.S. network.

Parents might not think their teens party like the scenes depicted on TV and in the movies, but they might.

Parents are invited to an evening filled with lifesaving information about parents, teens, parties and the law. The program will be presented at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 21, in the library at Glenbard West, 670 Crescent Blvd. in Glen Ellyn. A parent discussion and orientation session will begin at 6:30 p.m. The 6:30 p.m. session offers a chance to share concerns, problems and solutions with one another.

Panelists for this vital presentation include Glenbard West dean Linda Oberg; Glenbard West psychologist Joyce Barrett; Ann Jorgensen, chief judge of DuPage County; and Linda Lewaniak, director of chemical dependency services at Alexian Brothers Behavioral Health Hospital.

Trust Company of Illinois generously sponsors this event.
