State Theatre Association to honor Glenbard East teacher

Thousands of high school thespians have learned to challenge themselves and honed their skills under the tutelage of Glenbard East High School speech arts department chairman Mark Kaetzer, and now the Illinois State Theatre Association is honoring Kaetzer's dedication to students and the theater.

Kaetzer has been selected to receive this year's service award for outstanding contributions in the Secondary Education Division of the Illinois State Theatre Association. This award recognizes Kaetzer's outstanding achievements in the world of theater education. The Illinois State Theatre Association called his contributions "exemplary and important to everyone across the state."

Kaetzer will receive the award on Saturday, Sept. 15, at the Illinois State Theatre Association convention.
