Evening of fine dining, entertainment to benefit West theater

Mark your calendar for Oct. 19 and plan to attend “The Road to Theatrefest: an evening of fine dining and entertainment” at Glenbard West High School.

Glenbard West plans to take its fall musical, “How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying” downstate to Theatrefest in January, and proceeds from the Oct. 19 dinner fund-raiser will defray the costs involved with going downstate.

Glenbard West parent Richard Taylor, a professional chef, volunteered to cater this dinner. Beyond delicious food, the evening will feature students performing solos and duets from the musical, the male choral group Voicemale will perform, as will the student improvisational troupe That One Group. The cafeteria will be transformed and take on a fine dining atmosphere.

A silent auction also will be part of the evening. The Merchandise Mart in Chicago has donated many wonderful items for this auction. However, additional donations would be greatly appreciated. If you would like to donate, please contact Mike Fox at (630) 469-8600 Ext. 2887.

The evening will begin at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 19, at Glenbard West, 670 Crescent Blvd. in Glen Ellyn.

The cost is $35 per person, and reservations are recommended. Tickets and reservations are available by calling (630) 942-7773.
