Glenbard West homecoming invites all to "Come Fly with Me"

Ol' Blue Eyes would be proud to know his hit "Come Fly with Me" is the theme for Glenbard West High School's homecoming. Students are incorporating the aviation theme -- airport, runways, lights, clouds, -- and an old classic movie theme in their celebration.

Spirit week begins Monday, Sept. 24, with lunchroom activities. Dress-up days will focus on movie destinations, e.g. "Sleepless in Seattle."

Alumni, parents and other community members are invited to join in the celebration.

The homecoming pep rally begins at 6 p.m. Friday, Sept. 28, in Biester gym. The homecoming court will be announced, and homecoming queen crowned. After the pep rally, students will make their way to Duchon Field for a bonfire.

The homecoming parade begins at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, at Elm and Main streets in Glen Ellyn. It will proceed south on Main Street to Crescent Boulevard and then east to Glenbard West, 670 Crescent Blvd.

The homecoming court will be introduced prior to the varsity football game. The Hilltoppers will take on York High School at 1:30 p.m. Sept. 29.

The homecoming dance will be held in Beister gym at 8 p.m. Sept. 29.
