Glenbard West reopens Tuesday, May 15

Classes are resuming at Glenbard West High School in Glen Ellyn, effective Tuesday, May 15.

The DuPage County Regional Office of Education inspected the school Monday night and deemed it ready for occupancy.

Glenbard West has been closed since about 3 p.m. May 9 when a transformer outside of the school caught on fire, causing an electrical fire. All students and staff were evacuated. There were no injuries.

On Tuesday, May 15, Advanced Placement chemistry and AP environmental science will be held in the District 87 administration center, 596 Crescent Blvd. in Glen Ellyn. For details about testing on Wednesday and Thursday, May 16 and 17, please continue to check West's Web site, www.glenbard.net/glenbard_west.

The DuPage County Regional Office of Education has determined because the school closure was in response to an emergency, the days do not need to be made up. The last final exam day for underclassmen is Tuesday, June 5.

The Student Recognition Convo for underclassmen has been rescheduled for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 22, in Glenbard West's auditorium.

The Senior Honors Convo has been rescheduled for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 23, in the auditorium.

Graduation will continue as scheduled at 6 p.m. Friday, June 1.
