Glenbard West to present "I Remember Mama"

Why not take a break from reality television and enjoy some real entertainment? Check out the Glenbard West High School production of "I Remember Mama," a comedy with heart.

The play by John Van Druter will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, April 21 through 23, in the auditorium, 670 Crescent Blvd. in Glen Ellyn.

The story is set in San Francisco in 1910 and follows an extended family's small joys, sorrows, and hopes. Daughter Katrin shares how she began her writing career by writing about her Uncle Chris, a cat that comes back to life and her mother's kindness and determination.

Tickets are $5 and will be available at the door.
