Glenbard pair part of state champ wheelchair basketball team

Glenbard South High School freshman Andrew Kuebel and Glenbard North High School senior Danielle Austin are members of the state champion Windy City Warriors, which won the IHSA state wheelchair basketball tournament. This is the second time in three years the Windy City Warriors are state champs, according to coach Curtis Lease.

The tournament was played at the Peoria Civic Center on March 10 and 11.

The Windy City Warriors is comprised of physically disabled athletes whose disabilities range from incomplete spinal cord formation, spina bifida, cerebral palsy and amputation to degenerative nerve conditions.
